the arterial wall becomes thickened and the artery is narrowed by deposits called plaques. Eardley et al.

The Women's Health Initiative was a very large, expensive study, funded by the National Institutes of Health.